No. 1397.

To RALPH FREEMAN, Esq.

SIR, I beg the Favour of you to let the Inclosed be inserted in the Gazetteer the first Opportunity. I am, with great Respect, Yours, L. C.

Unparliamentary, Unhistorical, Verification of the Instructions given by ONE HUNDRED AND NINE Burgeſſes at large and Freeholders (out of Two and TWENTY HUNDRED) of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham, to their Two Members, John Plumtree and Berlace Warren, relating to the obtaining an Act for limiting the Number of Placemen in the Houſe of Commons; to which Instructions the Names or Marks of all the ſaid One Hundred and Nine Burgeſſes at large, are ſubſcribed or ſigned.

You Two 'Squires whom we have ſent (The One had never our Conſent) From Nottingham to Parliament, We, of your Voters the moſt noily, Do, by theſe Preſents, mean to teaze ye:

Think us, Sirs, raſh Undertakers, In giving Laws to our Law-makers; Muſt we'd have you underſtand Muſt but to act, as we command: Can this leſs be than your Duty, Ours, Gentlemen, we conſtitute ye: In which, in Common Senſe, is greater, Than Law-maker, or ſtill Law-maker's Maker? Wherefore we have a Right, our Smarts To ſell, and ope our bleeding Hearts: To lead your Ears, to us who want, And liſten to our important Cant, Which is, that ſince Examples tend To ſet a Way or other to ſome End: Therefore, becauſe, and altogether, Three mighty Clarks make great Poſter, And York; and what's the other In Northern Parts? of muckle Fame The Stricks, and what I need not name. We are unwilling to be wanting In Railing, Roaring, Rout, and Ranting. Where you, Gentlemen, may think, We ſtand on Ruin's Brink, We ſtand on, or by too much Drink. Whereby our Heads may be thought crazy, Our Bodies like wiſe ſomewhat lazy, And our Affairs turn'd topſy-turvy: Are brought into Condition ſcurvy: And many our Rights and Privileges, As torn, as if been dragg'd thro' Hedges: Yet, Gentlemen, know this moſt ſurely, We mean to raiſe a Hurly-Burly, To gain, if poſſible, Relievement From what we deem the Nation's Grievance; Which is, that Way Unreaſonable, Unrighteous, and Abominable, Which you of your Houſe have of taking Pleaſure, to our no ſmall Heart-aching. For it is not moſt plaguy fretting, That we get out, that we may get in? Therefore, in ſhort, for our Security, Both now, and then, and to Futurity, We do moſt ardently inſiſt, That Placemen be forthwith diſmiſ'd. And we more ſturdy are in this, The Reaſon we conceive it is, That by Experience we declare it, It is to be borne, becauſe we bear it. We go with th' King to Loggerheads, This guards our Sov'reign's ſacred Noſe, From Subjects ſalutary Blows; Or when, true Patriots like, we'd beat him, That Placemen ſtop our coming at him.

In Church we want no Alteration, Might all Diſſenters quit the Nation;
Nor of the State with other Steering Then annual Electioning;
For 'tis moſt hard for us to fail
Of annual Election Ale.
We therefore wiſh we might return to This Biribright we were never born to;
And to accompliſh this you may, Sirs,
Have our Commands another Day, Sirs.
'Tis not a little, low, piratical War, or ſuch a Farce dramatick,
But broken Heads and bloody Noſes,
And beating black and blue our Faces Eyes
According to a Declaration Lateſt proclaim'd throughout the Nation,
Will make us chearfully unſtrifing
Our Purſes, to defend the King,
Our Traders, ourſelves, or any thing.
Wherefore your Conduct in theſe mighty Affairs, and our Requeſts moſt weighty, May at a proper Season meet A ſuitable Return to it,
From us, and farther by our Labours
From Dozens of ſuch-like our Neighbours,
That is, if you'll give up your Places,
You fairly, then, may kiſs our A—s.

IRELAND.

Dublin, Dec. 1. Wednesday laſt being Market-Day at Caſtle-Blayney, his Maſteſty's Declaration was read and War proclaim'd with great Joy and Decency: The Lord Blayney ſent his Brother into the Market-Place attended by ſome other Gentlemen, and a great Number of his Lordſhip's Proteſtant Tenants to be preſent till the Declaration was read; after which the Guns fired, and his Lordſhip gave the Populace Plenty of Liquor. A Dinner was prepared at a Houſe in Town for the Gentlemen, where they all met, and drank the Health of the King and all the Royal Family, the Glorious Memory of King William, Succeſs to the Britiſh Arms, the Lord Lieutenant, Sir Robert Walpole, and ſeveral other Loyal Healths: And the Evening concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, firing of Guns, and other Demonſtrations of Joy.

By Letters from the Counties of Limerick, Roſcommon, Wexford, and other Places, we have an Account, that ſo many Robbers are out in thoſe Counties, that the Gentlemen are oblig'd to leave their Country Seats, and live in the principal Towns, to ſecure their Perſons and Effects.

Laſt Tueſday on the Petition of Philip Tiſdal, Eſq; againſt Alexander Mc Alay, Eſq; ſitting Member for the Univerſity of Dublin, the former was declar'd duly elected.

Dr. ROBERT EATON'S

BALSAMICK STYPTICK.

Truly prepared and sold at the Doctor's late Dwelling House, now Mr. DUTTON'S in Salisbury Court, Fleet-street.

THIS Medicine restrains in a most surprising Manner, all internal as well as external Hemorrhages, i. e. it infallibly and quickly stops all dangerous Bleedings at the Nose or Gums, spitting or vomiting Blood, also the immoderate Flux of the Hemorrhoids or Medica-bloody Urine or Stools, bleeding of large Wounds, &c. (as appear by the Certificates of several Eminent Physicians, and in the large Account of this Medicine, written by the Doctor himself, and dedicated to the College of Physicians, a little before his Death.

It keeps good for many Years, at Sea or on Shore, at Home or Abroad, i. e. in all Climates, therefore must be universally Useful.

The Doctor not only obtained his Majesty's Letter Patent for the sole Vending of this most Excellent Medicine; but also a Clause in a late Act of Parliament, empowering the Medicine from the Inspection of the Councils of the College of Physicians, to which all other Medicines are liable.

N. B. Some of the Apothecaries prepare a Stypticum Prescription of Helictus, and use it in the Room of Dr.
Eaton's; but whoever tries both, will soon be persuaded that Ours exceeds theirs in all Respects, in a most evident Degree.

Sold, by Licence, at Garraway's Old Shop, Practical School at the Royal Exchange; Mr. R. Bradshaw's Warehouse below the Royal Exchange; Mr. John Potter, Chymist, in Bartholomew Close; Mr. William Evans, Bookbinder, in Strand, at Hammond, Jun. Bookbinder, at York; Mr. Roe, Bookbinder in Drury; Mr. Raikes, Printer, in Gloucester; Mr. Dyer, Printer, in Northampton; Mr. Thomas Greenhill, Member of Bath; Mr. Abree, Printer, at Canterbury; Mr. Horner, an Apothecary, at Kidderminster; Mr. Trowbridge, a Bookkeeper, in Exeter; Mr. Hallifax, an Apothecary, at Reading; Mrs. Unett, a Bookbinder, at Wolverhampton; and Mr.
Bryan, a Printer, at Worcester.

The only true Specifick Chymical LIQUOR

For Dissolving and bringing away the Stone, whether in the Kidneys, Ureters or Bladder; and for lessening the Strangury, and all Heat, Pain, Stiffness, or Difficulty in making Water.

THE very first Dose of it gives perfect

Ease in a Moment, even in the most itching Stone, either STONE or GRAVEL, and at once entirely frees the Patient from the STRANGURY, and all Heat, Pain and Stiffness of Urine; it dilates the Ureters, makes them slippery, and the Crumbling of large Stones, together with Sand or Gravel, may pass freely from the Reins, and be voided without Urine without Pain; effectually cleanses the Kidney Bladder, and all Urinary Passages from gritty calculeous Mater; heals all internal Excoriations or Soreness of the Part; directly takes off all Pain in the Back, and those Pains which like the Cholick, and may be depended upon to dissolve large Stones, so as infallibly to cure that most miserable Distemper. It gives such sudden and unspeakable Relief, that whoever takes but one Dose of it, will be thoroughly convinced of its surprising Efficacy; which many Hundreds have happily experienced to their infinite Satisfaction.

It is such an agreeable Diuretick and powerful Dissolvent that it infallibly prevents the Stone in those who are trouble with Gravel only; and for the perfect Cure of either Stone Gravel, and all Disorders of the Kidneys, Uters, or Bladder occasioned thereby, is the only true Specifick Remedy that can be surely and safely rely'd upon, as it gives instant Relief as soon as taken, (even when nothing else will) and infallibly accomplishes a perfect Cure without the least Trouble, being pleasant to the Palate, agreeable to the Stomach, and conferring to the whole Body. It is to be had only at Jones Coffee-house against the Angel and Crown Tavern in New street, behind the Royal Exchange, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions at large.

These are to Certify whom it may concern,

THAT the Two Medicines for external Use, which have been sold with so much success for the Good of Mankind above Thirty Years last past, are the Cure of

All Sorts of RUPTURES, BURSTEN, or

BROKEN BELLIES.

are removed from the Minorities where they have been sold the Author, so long, and are now sold only at Mr. Sandwell's Toyshop, the Sign of the Griffin, the Corner of Buckingham-bury in the Poultry, at 5s. the Parcel, with printed Directions given with them.

These two Remedies need no other Recommendation than themselves will manifest in two or three Days using, having their admirable and even astonishing Success, gained the Reputation they so justly deserve, both in City and Country after wearing Trusses for many Years to no Purpose.

For by the Blessing of God, they make a perfect Cure either on Old or Young, in a very little Time, and for a small Charge, without any Pain to, or Confinement of the Patient.
One Parcel is generally sufficient for a complete Cure, especially on a young Person.

Many Hundreds of all Ages and Sexes have been cured them, which occasioned this Publication, for the Good of the Publick, that all such unhappy People may be delivered from the Charge and Slavery of always wearing Trusses.

The World might have had many Certificates of Cures Persons of all Ages, from Children of a few Months old, grown Persons of 60 Years or upwards; but that they are are naturally averse to let it be known, that they are such an Infirmity: Yet Mr. Sandwell can satisfy any quirer of the Validity of what is here said, tho' he has had such large Knowledge, by reason of the short Time has sold 'em, as they from whom the Medicines are now good Reasons, removed.

No Letters received except Post paid.
